

BC PROTEOMICS NETWORK TRAVEL AWARD APPLICATION FORM FOR HUPO 2017

- The HUPO 2017 World Congress will take place in Dublin, Ireland on September 17-21, 2017. For more information and to register, visit:
- <http://hupo2017.ie/>
- The BC Proteomics Network will provide 4 travel awards for students attending the event valued at $750 each.

ELIGIBILITY

- In order to qualify for a BCPN travel award, the applicant must either be a student permanently enrolled in a degree program at an academic institution in BC or a postdoctoral fellow permanently employed by an academic institution in BC and within 3 years of having completed a Ph.D.
- Only one travel award will be awarded per applicant per calendar year and there is a limit of 2 awards per lab.
- The travel award is intended to be a partial reimbursement of travel costs and will be reimbursed after the conference. Allowable expenses under this program include transportation, accommodation and registration fees.
- Recipients of a BCPN travel award will be required to submit an abstract for the conference.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

- Please fill out the applicant information below to apply for a BCPN travel award.
- Attach a one paragraph justification explaining the benefits of attending this conference and how it is relevant to your research.
- Attach the abstract that you submitted for the conference
- Send your completed application and attachments to the BC Proteomics Network at admin@bcpn.ca

APPLICANT INFORMATION

Name

Position

Research Supervisor

Department and institution

Address

Phone number

Email address